The work here is moving along nicely. Our pastor, J. L. Gillin, has been preaching every two weeks on Sunday evening in Waterloo, at the Mission Chapel, but will this coming year preach once every four weeks in the afternoon at four o'clock. This makes him an extra sermon every four weeks, but he is a wide awake man, and the Lord richly blesses those that work with their might for the upbuilding of his kingdom.

We held a three days' mission meeting, Jan. 13 15 and were very glad to have brother J. C. Cassel of Philadelphia, and Brother Talley of Chicago, with us. They are both good mission workers. It is a work that we hope each one in the brotherhood will become more interested in and pray God to make it more practical in our lives.

Our Young People's Society is doing nicely. They will continue their pledges made last year to missions.

Pray for our young people here at Enon. We have a new library for our Sunday School which is something most of us enjoy very much.

On Sunday morning, February 19th, was the first time I met with the brethren and sisters of West Independence, Ohio, to worship and to work together to the building up of the gospel alone faith. We worked and so labored until Sunday evening March 11th at which time we closed our services. As an immediate result four came out in answer to our invitations and one made private application for baptism. We hope to meet the first Sunday in April at which time baptism will be attended to. I enjoyed my stay very much while at West Independence. I found them a good, clever, sociable, devoted people. I made my home in the hospitable family of brother Jacob C and Sister Hazen. Was well cared for. I visited at the homes of all the members living in the little town. Inclement weather and bad roads were much against the interests of the meeting, but persistent stick to and hold on, and the good Lord helping, we had a good meeting. Arrived home on the 15th of March. Found all well. Thanks to all for kindness shown. The Lord bless all.

On the evening of February 20th Brother Marks commenced a series of meetings at this place and preached nineteen sermons for us but on account of much sickness and bad roads the meeting closed last night. The attendance was good. Five united with the church and several others will unite in the near future. Brother Marks is not afraid to preach the whole gospel and altho we have great opposition to overcome here, six other d-nominations against us, there has been much good accomplished during our meetings.

Our C. E. society is doing some good work. New members have been added and two new committees, the Good Literature and the Temperance. Thro the efforts of the Social committee new song books were placed in the church. At the last business meeting the pastor was requested by a unanimous vote to remain with the church another year.

Notes From Zed H. Copp

The church here in Dayton continues in love and zeal. Praise the Lord!

The Sunday-school under the management of brother John Eversole is making rapid strides in efficiency and growing in size. They will hold an Easter exercise. The King's Children are not slothful in business pertaining to the Master. They recently held another social which was pre eminently a success in every respect. The Aid Society is another powerful arm, working for the good of the whole body. The whole church itself is going forward in the work of the Lord both in personal graces and in social influence and spiritual power. A week's meeting will be held, beginning Sunday night, 26th inst. Brethren-in Christ, pray for this work. Then too, don't forget to pay toward it, for beginning with April we expect our pastoral labors will be wholly confined to Dayton. With what the State Board and the work here now pays we could only about half way live HONESTLY, i e., meet our bills. Therefore it will be necessary to have the support jointly of the general brotherhood. Brethren, remember if you wish Dayton to get any help from the General Board of Missions you must be sure to instruct the secretary that your offering is for Dayton. Sending it to the "General Fund" does us no good. Help!

Brother J. C. Ewing has moved his family here and now is one of us. He is a great help to the church, and we rejoice that he is meeting with success with his musical labors.

West Alexandria.—The revival closed some time ago without any additions. The entire effort was held under very adverse circumstances. The church itself is awakened, strengthened and encouraged, and we believe that when they hold their lovefeast there will be some added to its numbers. We enjoyed our going out and in among these Brethren very much, and generally found them wholesouled and active. Special thanks are due sister Alma Bruoaker, the organist; brothers William Saylor, the janitor, Daniel Minderman for substitutional preaching and David Wampler and family for a hospitable home for the preacher. The Aid Society was reorganized with sister Laura Copp, President; Julia Lowman, Vice President; Catharine Holeman, Secretary; Hester Bear, Assistant; and Sarah Smith, Treasurer. We expect good reports from them.

Bear Creek. The work here is still alive and we hope that with the advent of spring, will take on new life. Sunday-school will re-open Sunday morning, April 2, at 9:30.
